The Event is scheduled to be held at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, GA (“Facility”) on Oct. 21-23, 2020. “Exhibitor” means, collectively, the entity that is applying to exhibit at the Event, the authorized representative (“Representative”) of that entity who is executing the exhibit contract on its behalf and, where applicable, that entity’s officers, employees, contractors and agents.

- 1. GDPR. By contracting to exhibit at PRINTING United, you have opted in to receive emails from PRINTING United (and our official vendors) about our events, products, services and Event related logistics. We do not share, sell, or rent email addresses. Each communication from SGIA/ PRINTING United will come with a link to unsubscribe or modify your preferences. The new European Union General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) provides protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, effective May 25, 2018. GDPR sets new standards and compliance requirements for every company that holds or processes personal data. Show Management is committed to high standards of information security, data privacy, and transparency, and to managing data in accordance with legislation and regulation, including but not limited to GDPR. Show Management attests that it will comply with applicable GDPR regulations, and we encourage our exhibitors to become familiar with GDPR and to adapt their business processes, data management practices, and integrations to meet their GDPR obligations. Questions can be directed to privacydata@sgia.org.
- 2. Effectiveness. This contract becomes binding once the Exhibitor’s application has been accepted by Show Management. Show Management reserves the right to reject applications with or without cause if in the best interests of the Event. By signing the exhibit space contract, the individual signing this contract represents and warrants that he/ she is duly authorized to execute this binding contract on behalf of named exhibitor. Show Management does not accept responsibility for the authorization (or lack of authorization) of the representative.
- 3. Membership; Eligibility. Exhibitor shall maintain membership with SGIA during the entire period from application through the Event. Alternatively, if the Exhibitor does not wish to be a member, they may choose to pay a non-member fee of $800 but would not receive exclusive member benefits. Exhibitor shall only exhibit or promote products or services that pertain to the business printing industry.
- 4. Exhibit Space Assignment. Upon acceptance by Show Management, Exhibitor will be assigned exhibit space in accordance with the procedures established by Show Management. Exhibitor will not be assigned space until the exhibitor has been qualified and a contract has been signed and received. Show Management reserves the right to modify or relocate Exhibitor’s space at any time if in the best interests of the Event. Exhibitor acknowledges that this contract, including its cancellation provisions, will remain effective even if Show Management exercises its right to modify or relocate Exhibitor’s space.
- 5. Payment Policy. Payment in full is encouraged. Exhibitors must pay a 10% deposit due within (7) business days of submitting a signed contract, with the remainder of the deposit of 40% (equal to 50% of the booth lease fee) paid by January 15, 2020. Exhibitors must pay 50% of their total contracted booth space if the contract is executed between January 15, 2020 and June 15, 2020. The balance of the full booth fee is due by June 15, 2020. The full $800 must be included with the fees due).

The parties acknowledge that the actual damages likely to result from Exhibitor’s cancellation or space reduction are difficult to estimate on the date of this contract and would be difficult for Show Management to prove. Therefore, the parties intend that Exhibitor will remain liable for the cancellation fees as outlined, depending on date of cancellation as liquidated and agreed upon damages and not as a penalty.

exterior of the convention facility. Robots, clowns, and similar are permitted but their use is confined to the exhibitor's leased space.

12. Suitcasing Policy. What is Suitcasing? Suitcasing is a parasitic business practice in which unethical companies will gain access to an event by obtaining some type of event credential (attendee badge, expo-only badge, etc.) and then solicit business in the aisles or other public spaces used for the conference.

Show Management's objective is to do everything legally possible to protect exhibitors from suitcasing. This suitcasing policy must be observed at all times. Violation may result in any or all of the following actions at the discretion of Show Management: Closure of your booth, Loss of participation in the priority booth selection event, and/or Exclusion from future shows.

Specific rules that apply:

Do not enter or loiter around the booth of the other party.

Do not harass or antagonize the other party.

Do not remove anything from any exhibitor's booth.

Do not register or give a badge to anyone not qualified to be in the Event.

Do not take pictures or hire outside photographers.

Due to intellectual property laws, photography of any kind is strictly forbidden on the trade show floor.

Show Management has created a Suitcasing Prevention policy team that will be available from the start of the Event to the conclusion of the Event and respond to all complaints regarding suitcasing. The team will be trained on what to look for and the appropriate factors to determine if there is an issue, the Suitcasing Prevention policy Team will review complaints regarding suitcasing.

Review each complaint off the show floor and take appropriate action, including removal from the show floor.

Levy penalties for violations, up to and including suspension from participation in future shows.

If you have a pending dispute regarding suitcasing at the Event, then you should consider the following:

Prior to the Event: If you feel there is a reasonable risk of a problem involving suitcasing, notify Rachel Thomas prior to arrival (exhibit@printingunited.com or 703.359.1379). Onsite: If you suspect another company of suitcasing, report it to Rachel Thomas by text message (724.866.9990) or email (exhibit@printingunited.com). Alternatively, you may report it to her or Jana McWilliams in person at the Show Management/ Booth Sales Office. Someone from Show Management will come to your booth immediately.

Show Management will take one of the following actions:

Upon receipt of a complaint from an exhibitor, Show Management will review the complaint with the exhibitor. Show Management will confer with other members of the Suitcasing Prevention policy team to investigate the complaint and determine what action may be taken, including meeting with the company that is accused of suitcasing. Actions will include:

Remove anyone found violating the suitcasing policy; or if deemed advisable, Show Management will attempt to bring the accuser and alleged violating party together in a meeting in the Show Management Office in an attempt to resolve the matter; or issue a warning if appropriate; or take no action if it is determined there is no action necessary.

EXHIBITOR CONTRACT TERMS & CONDITIONS

Evidence of insurance meeting the requirements of this section must be furnished to Show Management upon request and must be available at the Facility during the Event. Exhibitor acknowledges that the requirements of this section in no way limit the liability of Exhibitor.
- 18. Waiver of Liability. Under no circumstances will Show Management be liable for any lost profits or any incidental, special, indirect, punitive or consequential damages of Exhibitor, regardless of whether such losses or damages were foreseeable, or Show Management was informed of the possibility of such losses or damages. The maximum liability of Show Management under any circumstances will not exceed the exhibit fee actually paid by Exhibitor to Show Management.
